TEACHERS VISIT MOUNT VERNON

Eighth Congressional Association
Adjourns After Two Days' Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., March 25.—The Eighth Congressional District teachers' annual meeting, which convened here Thursday evening last, in annual session, came to an end at noon today. The educators early this afternoon took a special train to Mount Vernon as guests of the business men of the city. They returned shortly before 4 o'clock, and were shown the points of interest around the city. Most of the teachers departed to-night for their respective homes, in order to be home Easter Sunday. All expressed themselves as highly pleased with their entertainment while in this city. Before adjourning the business session this morning, a resolution was passed, expressing appreciation of the teachers for the courtesy shown by the people of Alexandria. Thanks were returned to Superintendent William H. Sweeney, his principals and teachers, the City School Board, Chamber of Commerce, the representative committee of the local teachers assembled, and the manager of the Young People's building, of Alexandria, for the many things they had done to make their stay in this city both pleasant and profitable.

The morning session was opened with the reading of an interesting paper on history, by Miss Cora Fishpaw, normal training teacher, Culpeper. Miss Selma Taylor, Manassas High School, Manassas, also read a paper on the same subject.

The principal address of the morning was made by Dr. Cliff W. Stone, State Normal School, Farmville, who took for his theme, "Socialization of School Work," which he handled in an able and forcible manner. "Domestic Science" was the subject of a paper read by Miss Lula D. Metz, Manassas.

TEACHERS SPEND BUSY DAY.

Interesting Theme Discussed and Several Addresses Made.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., March 25.—The second day's session of the Third District Teachers' Convention convened this morning at 9 o'clock, in the chapel of Williamsburg and Mary College. C. G. Burr presiding. After prayer by Rev. R. L. Walton, of the Presbyterian Church, the chairman read the theme of the day's discussion, "What the Public School Can Do for the Health of the Community."

In the absence of Dr. Williams, State Health Commissioner, Assistant State Commissioner of Health Dr. Freeman, of Richmond, discussed "Personal and Practical Hygiene." Other speakers were Professor J. W. Ritchie, "Instruction and Direction of Sanitation," A. H. Fitzgerald, "Richmond," "The Dirty Child Problem and How to Solve It," Miss Georgie Dunn, "The School and Community Health." Dr. H. E. Bennett, of Williams and Mary, was conductor of a round table discussion on the morning theme.

Examiner E. H. Russell, of Fredericksburg, delivered an address on the "Professional Standard of Teaching." The convention perfected a permanent organization by the election of W. M. Adams, of Richmond, as chairman, and Miss Georgie Dunn, secretary. Mr. Burr will continue as chairman of the district convention, by virtue of his appointment by the State association as district vice-president. A rising vote of thanks was extended to the people of Williamsburg generally, and the educational department of the Civic League in particular, for their courtesies and hospitality.

The place of next meeting of the convention was left to an executive committee to be appointed by the president.

Deposed Sultan's Debts.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Constantinople, March 25.—The increase in the receipts of the Turkish customs, property taxes and other duties has enabled the Turkish government to pay $2,000,000 of the debts of the deposed Sultan, as well as to provide pensions for officials placed on the retired list, and to make supplementary appropriations to the various departments, still leaving a considerable sum at the end of the financial year in the treasury.

Get Your Rent List

Get your rent list now and pick out the house you want to move in this fall. But be sure and get a house that is electric lighted. Check off houses marked "electric lighted." If you want a comfortable home. Now "electric lighted" means a great deal more than it says, for the same wire carrying the lighting current furnishes current for ironing, sewing, washing, vacuum cleaning, hair curling, other useful purposes. Only a few cents a week added to your lighting bill will work wonders in lightening the domestic burdens. For information or advice call at the offices of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, Seventh and Main Streets.

DANGER'S EYES AND A CIGAR, THEN DUEL

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, March 25.—Gallant Monsieur Payer, a Paris merchant, was the victor in a duel fought a pair of blue eyes and a cigar, away, the Spaniard, the other day, his opponent was a Spaniard, living in London.

The two met in a railway car on a journey from Madrid, the only other occupant of which was a pretty Parisian dancer with whom M. Payer was instantly smitten. The Spaniard, who sat opposite the dancer, lighted a cigar, whereupon the lady was mightily offended, and told him he was very impolite to smoke in her presence. Instead of apologizing and throwing his cigar away, the Spaniard, in a fit of pique, had the right to do as he pleased. This so angered the worthy Frenchman that he would have sprung upon the Spaniard had not the woman held him back by main force. The upshot of the matter was an exchange of cards, and the eventual meeting in the Parc.

They fought with swords for over an hour, amid mud and pouring rain. M. Payer pinked his man several times, and finally the Spaniard withdrew with an ugly wound in the sword arm. The duellists parted unrecalled.

THIEVES ROB GAMBLERS

"Policemen" Who Raid Hotel Room Prove Robbers in Disguise.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Rome, March 25.—The papers publish particulars of a remarkable raid on a gaming room connected with the Hotel de Ville, in the city of Rome, and nightly resorted to by many rich foreigners. A few nights ago half a dozen policemen suddenly entered the room, and seized all the money on the tables, about 150 lire.

They also took the pocketbooks of the players, but strangely enough, made no arrests. Not until some time afterward did the roulette players discover that they had been the victims of a robbery.

The "policemen" being a band of thieves in disguise.

Start Tour of World.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
London, March 25.—Earl and Countess Poulet have left England on a tour round the world. They will break their journey at Colombo and spend some weeks in India, and from India they will go to Japan, returning to London by California and New York. The journey will occupy about ten months.

Chief of Police Resigns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., March 25.—Chief of Police G. R. Newkirk, of Bluefield, W. Va., has resigned the position, and has accepted a place with a detective agency, whose headquarters are at Roanoke.

PLEADS GUILTY TO RECEIVING REBATES

New York, March 25.—Adrian Gips, the general agent of the Holland-American Steamship Line, in the United States, pleaded guilty before Judge Holt, in the United States Circuit Court, yesterday to indictments charging the receiving of rebates from railroads.

Mr. Gips pleaded guilty to one count in each of two indictments, which charged the receiving of rebates from the Wabash and Central Vermont Railroads in violation of the Hepburn law.

Judge Holt imposed a fine of $2,000 in each case. The maximum fine possible was $20,000.

Gips was indicted last November, together with several officials of the railroads mentioned. He had pleaded not guilty on his arraignment, and the trial was set for next week.

Arrangements were immediately made for the payment of the fine. The other men who are under indictment in the same connection are David O. Ives, president of the Boston Merchants' Association board of transportation, formerly traffic manager of the Wabash Railroad; Robert Burnap, formerly traffic agent of the Central Vermont Railroad; William C. Maxwell, general traffic manager of the Wabash; William E. Schmitt, formerly freight agent of the Wabash and now Western representative of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain Railroad.

WEDNESDAY CLUB WILL SING "ELIJAH"

Famous Oratorio to Be Rendered by Chorus, With Orchestra Accompaniment.

Preparations for the seventeenth annual Wednesday Club Music Festival on Monday and Tuesday, April 25 and 26, are being made rapidly. The uncomfortable benches in the City Auditorium are being removed and replaced with opera chairs, which cover the entire first floor.

Tail Eben Morgan, who returned to the city last week, has accepted the chorus of the club into excellent condition, and is sure that the music this year will be his best work in this city. The Children's Chorus is doing remarkably good work, under the leadership of Walter C. Mercer. The three choruses this year give the promise of being the best heard here in many a long day.

Judging from the success of former years, the Pittsburgh Festival Orchestra will outdo its former records in this city. Carl Bernthaler always has his big aggregation of instrumental artists in training, but that Richmond can see the Pittsburgh Festival Orchestra at its best, he is taking extra pains with the music for this occasion.

The splendid success of last year's festival, simply demonstrated the wisdom of giving these concerts, and building of large seating capacity, where it has been found possible to arrange a scale of prices to suit every purse.

The programs have been arranged with much care, an attempt having been made to include numbers to satisfy the musical taste of all patrons. The program of the first concert will be a "miscellaneous" program, containing a number of beautiful selections for the club, the artists and the orchestra. Miss Jeanne Jomell will sing at this concert. The matinee concert will be given by the Children's Chorus, soloists and orchestra, and at the final concert, the club, assisted by the soloists and the orchestra will give Mendelssohn's highly dramatic oratorio, "Elijah," a work which contains musical effects that will arouse the interest of every listener, whether professional, amateur, student, or simply lover of music.

The artists will include Miss Jeanne Jomell, prima donna soprano; Miss Alice Marriott-Coehran, soprano; Miss Lilla Snelling, contralto; Dr. Franklin Lawson, tenor; Francis Proctor, bass; Frank Kilar, violinist, and Fritz Gorman, cellist.

WOMEN ALONE IN HOUSE BEAT DOWN INTRUDER

Use Poker and Gun With Effect on Head of Imbecile Negro, Who Tries to Enter.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Monterey, Va., March 25.—Mrs. J. J. Jones and her daughter, Miss Geneva, who live alone, near the village of Crabbottom, had an experience with a midnight intruder, which has made heroines of both widow and daughter.

On Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock they were aroused by some one making a determined effort to enter the house by the kitchen door. Instead of losing their heads from fright, Mrs. Jones secured an iron poker and Miss Geneva an old gun, and reached the door just as it was broken open by the violent efforts of the unknown visitor. It proved to be an inmate of the county parish farm, situated a few miles away, known as "Crazy George," a man well up in years, and who has been a county charge for perhaps half a century. Not until he had been felled by the heavy blows from the iron poker was his identity discovered. George is known as a harmless imbecile, and is allowed to go about the neighborhood, roaming at his late hour, and his purpose in breaking into the Jones home, cannot be accounted for, as he offered no resistance.

The plucky women sent a telephone message to the keeper of the parish farm, who came at once and took his charge back to his room.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of Dr. Jesse A. Bucher, of Bridgewater, Va.

Baronial Halls for Sale.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
London, March 25.—The Lanarkshire estate of Lord Coleridge is to be offered for sale shortly. It consists of about 20,000 acres in the County of Lanarkshire, and includes two baronial halls, deer forests and grouse moors, many miles of the River Clyde from its source, four villages and a golf course.

Many False Pictures.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, March 25.—La Patrie states that 1,464 false pictures were sent to America during the last twelve months, including 289 signed Corot, 185 Rembrandt, 621 Renier, 22 Rembrandt, and 276 Zola. Recently under the new law admitting antiques free of duty hundreds of forgeries, having belonged to Marie Antoinette, have been sent over.

MYSTERIOUS HOUSE WILL BE SOLD THIS WEEK

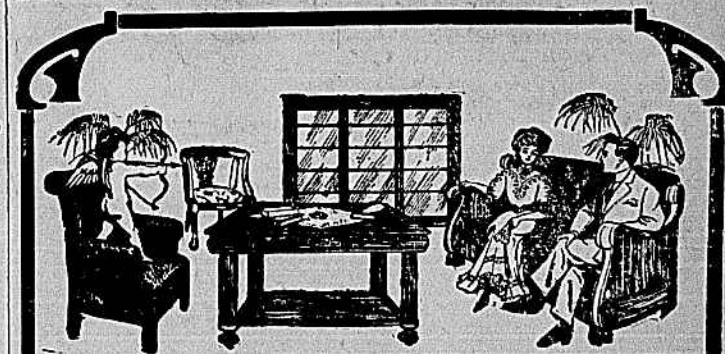

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, March 25.—The mysterious house in the Impasse Bonaparte, where Mrs. Stein's husband and mother were murdered, is to be sold next week. It will probably be acquired by the Society of Russian Artists.

Mme. Stein had wished to keep the notorious house, and even announced her intention of returning to live there, but her daughter, Marthe, who is coheiress, insisted upon the sale. Since her mother was acquitted Mme. Marthe has steadfastly refused to see her, communicate with her in any way or receive money from the hand of the "Tragic Widow." Mme. Stein has announced her forthcoming appearance at a London music hall, but the date has not been set.

WATCH THE COMPLEXION

Entirely Cleared After a Few Applications of Pomade.

Where it goes is evident, not a very serious matter as long as the little red spot, blemish or other skin disfigurement disappears as quickly as it does after a few applications of pomade. The new skin remedy, a peculiar feature of postam is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored, and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. Pomade can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs. Tragle's drug store makes a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema, itching spots, etc. Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure by mail, free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over night and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.
